

Please do not relax the rules on the number of outlets an organization can own. Diversity and truth in a democracy do not have "Economies of Scale". Already there has been a dangerous concentration of media in a few hands. Democracy cannot survive more concentration